

Kennedy Signs Farm Program Into a Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy signed into law today a new farm program which he called "a major step toward a sound agricultural economy and a better life for the farmers of this country."

Present at the White House signing were leaders of Congress, key men on the Senate and House Agriculture committees, heads of five major farm organizations and Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

The new law permits higher farm price supports in return for a 10 per cent cut in wheat acreage; a continuation next year of the emergency feed grains program; and extension of a number of other farm programs—including surplus disposal and school milk programs—for varying periods of years.

Kennedy said the law will permit expansion of markets, a reduction of the stocks of wheat and feed grains, and a lessening of the burden on taxpayers. Both farmers and consumers, he said, will benefit from extension of marketing orders to more commodities. He mentioned also the possibilities for enlarging markets for American farm products overseas and for expanding the school milk program at home.

4 Children Drown at Marianna

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP) — Four children went wading in the shallow water of the Auguille River overflow channel Monday. All four stepped into deep water and drowned while their families watched helplessly.

The victims, none of whom could swim, were Frances Bealy, 15; Monroe Bealy Jr., 9; Mardis Ann Ripper, 15, all of Marianna, and Barbara Sue Vickers, 12, of Westminster, Calif.

They were at a picnic spot on the river, 3½ miles east of here, with their mothers and other children. No one else was in the area, said State Trooper Elmer G. Bradshaw.

When the children went under, one mother ran for help. An unidentified Marianna youth recovered Mardis Ann's body but dragging operations were necessary to find the bodies of the other three.

Bradshaw said the water was about nine feet deep where they went under.

Frances was an aunt of two of the other victims, Barbara Sue and Monroe. Mardis Ann was a cousin.

Frances was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cole Bealy of Marianna. Monroe the son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Bealy of Marianna. Mardis Ann was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ripper of Marianna. Barbara Sue was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deward Vickers of Westminster.

Officers Rowe and Clark of the city police spotted the boys as they drove through town and arrested them. The vehicle proved to belong to Ted Woods of the Arkansas Parks & Publicity Commission. He had left the keys in the car at his home and didn't know it was stolen until notified it had been recovered.

The boys will be turned over to Little Rock officers today. Mr. Woods reclaimed his car here this morning. It was not damaged.

Weather

Experiment Station report for 24 hours ending at 6 p. m. Monday, High 90. Low 64; precipitation .35 of an inch; total 1961 precipitation through July, 32.69 inches; during the same period a year ago, 22.42 inches.

ARKANSAS: Partly cloudy and warm this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with isolated afternoon and evening thunderstorms. Highest today low to mid 90s.

CIRCLES EARTH — MOSCOW RADIO HAS ANNOUNCED that cosmonaut Maj. Gherman S. Titov, shown here in training gear, has soared 17 times around the world and has returned to earth in "excellent condition" after 25 hours. — NEA Radiophoto

Tabernacle to Show Film 'Seventeen'

"Seventeen," the award-winning sound motion picture which gives the Bible's answer to the problems of modern teen-agers, will be shown Wednesday, August 9, 7:30 p. m. at the First Assembly of God Church. This youth film is being shown as a part of the Youth Week being conducted. The public is invited.

Results in Country Club Golf Play

George Peck upset favored Charles Carver one up in the first round of the Hope Country Club championship golf tournament and will meet 1959 champion Jim Smith in play this week. Smith had to birdie the 16th and 17th holes to beat Fred Wrenn two and one.

In the other championship flights Frank Carver beat his father, Russ Carver, six and five; and defending champion Homer Beyerley fired a one-under-par 67 to eliminate Henry Fenwick four and two. Carver will meet Beyerley in the semi-finals this week.

Other flights:
First: Mitch LaGrone beat Buster Royston 4-7.
Jimmy Jones bested Fred Ellis 3-2.

Johnny Graves downed F. Gathright 4-3.
Bill Harter defeated Maurice Sagely 2-1.

Second: Mickey Baber defeated Royce Smith 3-2.
Lynn Harris downed N. Pentecost 3-2.

Sammy Strong defeated A. Albritton 1 up (19 holes).
Third: Eddie Whitman defeated H. LaGrone.

David Waddle downed Olie Olson.
Albert Graves defeated J. C. Atchley.

Fourth: Frank Coleman defeated Buck Williams.
Fred O. Ellis beat Grandy Royston.

Ordinance Sets Up New Sewer Rates

Hope's board of directors yesterday passed an ordinance setting up new rates for sewage service with monthly minimums of $1.25 for residences and $1.50 for businesses.

This adjustment was made to finance a $210,000 bond issue which the city had previously sold to re-lay sewer mains throughout the town. A public hearing on the matter attracted only a handful of persons and no serious objections.

Also yesterday, highway department officials appeared and asked the city not to install a new signal light at Third and Hwy. 81. The old one had been smashed by a truck. The group agreed and a caution light will be erected. The highway department has erected "stop ahead" signals on inter highways leading into 67.

Bar Meet Delayed by 'Jawing'

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The American Bar Association, a bit delayed in its work by lawyer-like jawing, today faced the question:

How to speed up justice and get a decision before litigants pass on to their just rewards?

The ABA, in the second day of its 84th annual convention, lined before it:

1. A revolutionary suggestion by magazine editor Henry R. Luce that judges get up early and open shop at 9 a.m. instead of the immemorial 10.

This idea produced only a polite, non-committal chuckle from the lawyers at a banquet Monday night.

2. A dark hint from James M. Landis, White House advisor, that "vested interests" were hamstringing President Kennedy's plan to speed up the slow-motion federal regulatory agencies. Kennedy wants to do this by allowing subordinates of the regulatory boards to make more decisions.

3. A hopeful report by an ABA committee that Kennedy shows all signs of cooperating with the ABA to pick the highest-type men for the federal bench—men likely to make things move. Kennedy will have the task of making about 120 such appointments in a year—more than any other president has made in four years. This is partly because congress has created 73 new judgeships.

Before the ABA could face up to these issues, its policy-making body, the House of Delegates, had to untangle itself.

The house got mixed up with housekeeping problems Monday. Such as: should the editor of the ABA Journal sit on the house board of governors?

So many lawyers with resonant, assured voices got hold of the mike that the chairman, a seasoned attorney, grew confused.

At one point, after a vote, he announced: "The chair is sustained." Then he had to reverse himself: "The chair is not sustained but wishes it were."

So the house finally threw up its hands and postponed a number of issues until today.

C. B. Russell, 57, Succumbs Here on Monday

Chester Barton Russell, aged 57, a lifelong resident of Hempstead County, died Monday in a local hospital. He operated a grocery store and curb market here for years. He was a Baptist.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Wanda Russell; a son, Carter Wayne Russell of Hope; two daughters, Mrs. Billy Joe Butler of Hope and Mrs. Billy Formby of Andrews, Texas; two brothers, D. W. Russell of Hope and Bob Russell of Los Angeles, Calif.; and a sister, Mrs. Dorsey White of Hope.

Services will be held at 4 p. m. Tuesday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home Chapel by Dr. John McManahan. Burial will be in Evening Shade Cemetery.

Look Out Taxpayers, Senate Busy Lining Up All-Expense Paid Trips to Far Places

Latins Agree With Aims of U. S. President

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP) — Latin-American leaders generally agreed today with the aims of President Kennedy's sweeping program for hemisphere development, but the biggest nations objected to a U.S. call for coordination of economic planning.

With the exception of Cuban economic czar Ernesto Guevara, delegates to the Inter-American Conference lauded the U.S. offer of long-term multibillion-dollar aid to help raise Latin-American living standards.

However, serious objections were expressed to the proposal for a seven-man planning committee of experts to coordinate development programs in the various countries.

Such key nations as Argentina, Chile, Brazil and Mexico have strong reservations about centralized direction of continental planning. These countries want to plan their own way out of their individual problems and prefer an individual approach, even though the process might take longer.

Argentina, Mexico and Chile indicate they feel they are making significant strides on their own in planning. Brazil, largest of the Latin-American countries, considers itself a case apart, worthy of special treatment.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon outlined the Kennedy program at Monday's session. He pledged the United States to a 10-year development program involving more than a billion dollars a year in U.S. contributions alone to help lift Latin America out of its centuries-old rut of misery and illiteracy.

Dillon offered U.S. guarantees to development loans on a long-term basis "running where appropriate up to 50 years." Most of these loans, Dillon told the delegates, would be "at very low or zero rates of interest." The loans would actually amount to 80 per cent grants and would match or better the terms offered by the Soviet Union in its loans to backward nations.

Dillon warned Latin-America's wealthy landlords they would have to sacrifice many of their traditional privileges if the plan were to succeed. He referred to honest tax structures, surrender of vast landholding rights and other accommodations to the 20th century.

Forest Hill Plans Revival Meet

Forest Hill Baptist Church will hold a revival starting Aug. 13 with the Rev. Ferrell Nelson doing the preaching. The Rev. Wesley Thompson is pastor. Services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily, according to Church Clerk Vivian Alford.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

The following Hempstead County men have been mailed orders to report for physical examination for the Armed Forces on August 15 . . .

Lloyd Jerald Yocum, William Dean Sampson, Walter Vance Smiley, Billy Bob Milus . . .

Johnnie D. Williams, Don Frederick Roberts, Ollie B. Huntley, Joe Herman Langston . . .

Willie Lee Green, Willie Swift, Robert Conway, James Travis Whitaker, George Pennington Jr., Willie Gene Stuart, James Willis Johnson . . .

Thomas Louis Smith Jr., William Edward McElroy, Harold Jerome Pindexter, Thomas Ray Colbert, Homer Wayne Reese, James Edward Brown, Burnis Lee Jones, and Lee Dell Steward.

Persons interested in the up-keep of Betts Cemetery on the Lewisville highway are asked to meet at the cemetery with tools on Thursday, Aug. 10.

The Lindsey Brothers quartet will give a singing concert at Hope City Hall on Friday night, Aug. 11, at 8 o'clock . . . this concert is sponsored by the Senior W. M. A. of Garrett Memorial Baptist Church . . . there will be a small admission.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators by the dozens are busily lining up expense-paid junkets to far places after Congress quits, probably in September.

Thirty-eight of the 10 senators don't have to worry. They already have it made by appointments to attend conferences where their presence at working sessions will be at their own discretion.

These conferences are being held in convenient cities, too—London, Brussels and Paris. No tramping about in tropical jungles, no worries about the after-effects of native food.

Moreover, it's cricket to bring the little woman along. She can have a free round trip by government plane, so there would remain only the cost of food, lodging—and shopping.

Congress will pick up a $60,000 expense tab for the three conferences. They include the Inter-parliamentary Union meeting in Brussels, Sept. 14-22, the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association in London, Sept. 24-Oct. 1 and the NATO Parliamentary Conference in Paris, Nov. 13-18.

The bill may be $15,000 higher if House members decide to attend the London meeting as well as the other two.

An even dozen Democratic senators drew a NATO assignment when Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson handed out the plums Monday. Republicans will send only four, since they didn't go into the business of selecting alternate delegates as their Democratic colleagues did.

Another dozen Democrats and four Republicans will go to the Brussels meeting. The London conference will draw four Democrats and two Republicans.

These assignments about use up the conference possibilities but those of the remaining 62 senators who have the urge to travel know from past experience there is rich ore to be mined in Senate committees.

The Appropriations, Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees are always sending off delegations to investigate conditions in distant parts. Strangely enough, the Interior Committee can provide some interesting spots to visit, because it is concerned with insular possessions, some of which are distant from the interior.

Senators don't like to have any of these journeys alluded to as junkets. They say, sometimes with a far-away look, that they are strictly business.

N. W. Webster, 68, Longtime Hope Resident, Dies

N. W. Webster, aged 68, a longtime resident of Hope, died Monday in a local hospital. He was employed by the old Temple Cotton Oil Co. for over 30 years. He was a Mason and a member of the Methodist.

Survivors include one sister, Miss May Webster of Tennessee, Georgia. The body will be sent to Georgia for burial with Herndon-Cornelius in charge of arrangements.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

The following Hempstead County men have been mailed orders to report for physical examination for the Armed Forces on August 15 . . .

Lloyd Jerald Yocum, William Dean Sampson, Walter Vance Smiley, Billy Bob Milus . . .

Johnnie D. Williams, Don Frederick Roberts, Ollie B. Huntley, Joe Herman Langston . . .

Willie Lee Green, Willie Swift, Robert Conway, James Travis Whitaker, George Pennington Jr., Willie Gene Stuart, James Willis Johnson . . .

Thomas Louis Smith Jr., William Edward McElroy, Harold Jerome Pindexter, Thomas Ray Colbert, Homer Wayne Reese, James Edward Brown, Burnis Lee Jones, and Lee Dell Steward.

Persons interested in the up-keep of Betts Cemetery on the Lewisville highway are asked to meet at the cemetery with tools on Thursday, Aug. 10.

The Lindsey Brothers quartet will give a singing concert at Hope City Hall on Friday night, Aug. 11, at 8 o'clock . . . this concert is sponsored by the Senior W. M. A. of Garrett Memorial Baptist Church . . . there will be a small admission.

MISS TEXAS — LINDA JACKLYN LOFTIS OF FORT Worth, was crowned Miss Texas of 1961 at ceremonies at Beaumont. Miss Loftis will represent Texas at the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, N. J., in September. — NEA Telephoto

Europe Very Skeptical on Mr. K's Talk

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev's proposal to "negotiate in an honest way" on Berlin drew generally skeptical reaction from congressional and diplomatic sources.

U.S. experts found little that was new on Khrushchev's plan for Berlin in the Soviet leader's radio-TV speech Monday.

The White House left open the possibility that President Kennedy might comment after a translation can be studied.

The State Department also was officially silent.

U.S. officials, however, still expect the Berlin question to result in negotiations late this year, and not until then do they expect Khrushchev to reveal what concessions he might have in mind.

Once again the Soviet premier said he planned to sign a peace treaty with the Communist East German government.

Also, as he has in the past, Khrushchev denied any intent to "infringe upon any lawful interests of the Western powers" in Berlin.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said that Khrushchev was "more positive than he has been before" in his statement denying plans for a new Berlin blockade.

"I believe he wants to negotiate about Berlin," Fulbright said. "Whether he wants to negotiate on the basis of what is years is mine is another matter. Nevertheless, I don't see why we cannot take the position that these differences should be discussed."

One problem in any negotiations is that Khrushchev and the Western powers do not agree on what the West's "lawful interests" in Berlin are.

Khrushchev has made plain that under his proposed treaty the West must seek its access to West Berlin from the East German regime, which the West does not recognize and which has threatened to shut down Western activities in the city.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Khrushchev appeared to be talking "in the language of both war and peace."

"It is to be devoutly hoped that, unlike the great Russian novel of that title, the balance this time is on the side of peace," Mansfield said.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, the assistant Republican leader, said he felt the speech had a belligerent tone.

"If God forbid, war should come, Khrushchev will be the aggressor. He knows it and the world knows it," Kuchel said.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said he believes the Khrushchev statements "open the way for negotiations" despite the threats the Soviet premier made.

Missile Door Falls, Five Workers Die

DENVER (AP)—A 50-ton steel and concrete door atop a Titan missile launching silo slammed shut with an earth-shaking crash, killing five workmen and injuring eight others Monday.

Three bodies were recovered. Two others were pinned between the door and the edge of the huge silo. A spokesman at Buckley Field, scene of the tragedy 15 miles west of Denver, said "it may be as long as 72 hours before the door can be raised."

"It presents considerable of an engineering problem," said a spokesman for one of the civilian contractors on the $160-million construction job.

Buckley Field identified two of the dead as Jerry E. Brancio of Denver and George Graham of nearby Aurora.

Only two of the injured men were hospitalized, Charles W. Postle, 42, of nearby Aurora and Howard Hoffman, 56, of Littleton, Colo. The others were treated and released. Postle suffered a broken back.

Witnesses said some of those who were injured leaped into safety nets placed at intervals in the 165-foot silo.

The massive door was one of a pair which are raised hydraulically as a missile rides to the surface.

A spokesman at the missile complex said either a hydraulic failure or failure of a retaining cable caused the door to crash. It cracked and split with a tremendous roar.

The prime contractor, Morrison-Knudson Associates of Boise, Idaho, formally turned the missile complex over to military control last week.

Most heavy construction has been completed, but the Air Force still has its instrument system to install before the Martin Co., installs its Titan I missile.

Senator Gets Behind Aid Measures

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, former Republican national chairman, today threw his support behind President Kennedy's long-range foreign aid program.

Kennedy seeks Treasury borrowing authority to finance a five-year, $8.8-billion loan program for development of struggling new nations.

Morton, in a prepared Senate speech, said the proposal was "identical in principle" with one advocated by former President D. Eisenhower in 1957, for which 21 Republicans now in the Senate voted at the time.

"I see no reason in principle that they should not support the administration," he said.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., however, has predicted that 30 to 35 Senate Republicans will vote for an amendment sponsored by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., to re-

Continued on Page Two

Cotton Crop Estimate 13.9 Million Bales

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today forecast this year's government-controlled cotton crop at 13,918,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This forecast, the first of the year, is 354,000 bales less than last year's crop of 14,272,000 bales. It compares with the ten-year 1950-59 average of 13,553,000 bales.

Like other cotton crops since 1954, this one is being grown under federal planting allotments and marketing quotas designed to prevent overproduction. This year's production will be supplemented by a reserve and surplus of about 7.5 million bales accumulated from past crops.

By comparison, domestic and export markets are expected to require slightly more than 15 million bales during the 1961-crop marketing season.

In an accompanying report, the census bureau said 227,800 running bales of cotton from this year's crop had been ginned up to Aug. 1 compared with 139,779 a year earlier.

The department forecast this acreage for harvest this year, at 15,052,000 acres compared with 15,309,000 harvested last year and 18,737,000 for the ten-year average.

The yield per acre to be harvested was forecast at 427 pounds compared with 446 last year and 362 for the ten-year average.

The department said that if the ratio of lint to cottonseed is the same as the average for the past five years' production of cottonseed this year would be 5770,000 tons compared with 5,886,000 last year.

The acreage for harvest, the yield per acre and the production, respectively, of cotton states, included:

Arkansas 1,355,000; 453 and 1,280,000.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas cotton production will be off this year from last if the first crop forecast issued today by the Agriculture Department holds good.

Statistician Miles McPeck said a cold, wet planting season would be responsible for a smaller crop despite an increase in acreage planted.

"The state last year produced 1,330,000 bales of cotton, compared to this year's forecast of 1,280,000 bales."

This year, the department said, 1,355,000 acres has been planted to cotton, compared to 1,320,000 acres last year.

The expected yield this year is 453 pounds and acre compared to 485 pounds an acre last year.

Accused Robber Coming to State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A man accused in an Arkansas bank robbery faces a hearing Thursday in San Angelo, Tex., for his removal to Arkansas.

The suspect, Howard Norman Gray, 31, was arrested in San Angelo three days after a gunman fled with $4,000 from the Taylor branch of the First National Bank of Magnolia. FBI agents said $1,000 was recovered when he was arrested.

Some Arkansas witnesses are expected to testify at Thursday's hearing, which is to determine if there is sufficient basis for Gray's removal to Arkansas to face bank robbery charges.

Gray, alias Leon Evans, is held under $10,000 bond.

Colleges Handing in Big Requests

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Tech today told the Legislative Council it needs $3,720,000 for construction and modernization and added another $1,275,000 estimate of longer-range future requirements.

Arkansas State followed with an estimate of $1,923,565 as needs for its main campus at Jonesboro.

Continued on Page Two

One thing in favor of modern city—it can't be as bad as it's painted.

Weather

Continued from Page One

Lows tonight mid 60s to mid 70s. Highs Wednesday 90 to 98.

LOUISIANA: Partly cloudy and warm through Wednesday with widely scattered thundershowers. Lows tonight 68 to 76. Highs Wednesday 86 to 94.

Ark regional forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

All sections: Clear to partly cloudy and warm this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with isolated afternoon or evening thundershowers. Highs today low to mid 90s central, northwest, southeast and southwest, low 90s northeast. Lows tonight low 70s central, mid-west, low to mid 70s southeast and southwest.

THE WEATHER ELSEWHERE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

	High	Low	Pr.
Albany, clear	80	55
Albuquerque, cloudy	98	74
Atlanta, cloudy	79	66	18
Bismarck, clear	89	62
Boston, clear	89	63
Buffalo, cloudy	77	59
Chicago, cloudy	84	69
Cleveland, clear	81	55
Denver, cloudy	92	61	04
Des Moines, cloudy	84	67
Detroit, cloudy	79	67
Fairbanks, cloudy	68	47
Fort Worth, clear	98	73
Helena, cloudy	96	50
Honolulu, cloudy	86	75	01
Indianapolis, clear	80	58
Juneau, cloudy	59	44	38
Kansas City, clear	86	69
Los Angeles, cloudy	83	M	M
Louisville, clear	84	64
Memphis, clear	89	70
Miami, clear	87	82
Milwaukee, cloudy	81	65
Mpls., St. Paul, cloudy	84	68
New Orleans, cloudy	88	73
New York, clear	90	69
Oklahoma City, clear	90	67
Omaha, cloudy	86	65
Philadelphia, clear	86	64
Phoenix, clear	109	79
Pittsburgh, cloudy	81	59
Portland, Me., clear	81	64
Portland, Ore., clear	87	57
Rapid City, cloudy	84	68
Richmond, cloudy	88	69	10
St. Louis, cloudy	84	67
Salt Lake City, clear	91	64
San Diego, cloudy	83	67
San Francisco, clear	70	59
Seattle, clear	82	55
Tampa, clear	96	75
Washington, clear	86	70

Two Named to Education Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus Monday appointed Dr. Carl E. Reng, president of Arkansas State College, and Dr. David W. Mullins, president of the University of Arkansas, as the state's representatives on the Southern Regional Education Board.

Woodmen of the World
"The Family Fraternity"
W.O.W. LIFE
INSURANCE SOCIETY
See:
DENVER HORNADAY
518 W. 4th Phone 7-2317

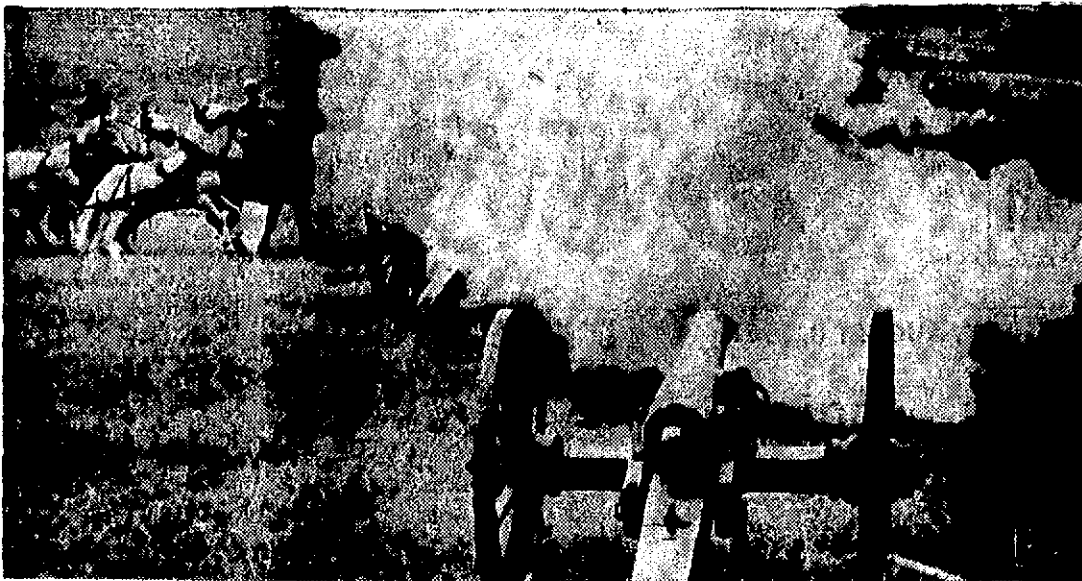

HAROLD HENDRIX
PULPWOOD DEALER
Buyers of Pine and Hardwood.
Hope Yard
16th & La.
7-4221
Prescott Yard
N. on Hwy. 67
88-72316

SPRAYERS
Row Crop and Pasture Sprayers
Now Is the Time to Buy
— AT —
PORTER
Implement & Garage
3rd St. Phone 7-2767
Ask for a Demonstration

doctors cost less than smoking

The average family spends only $66 a year for doctor bills... only $38 for prescriptions.
One pack of cigarettes
daily, costs about $90
a year.

$49.95
Ward & Son
Drug Co.
Country — Service and Quality
124 E. Second St.

BULL RUN '61 STYLE—The date is not 1861—it is 1961, but the mode is the same. As the cannon thunder, these brave horses and their riders charge onward. This scene in Manassas, Va., takes place daily as horse trainer Philip Vail schools 70 horses for the re-enactment of the Battle of Bull Run, the first big land clash of the Civil War.

Lunar map shows two kinds of information. One is relief, being developed by Walter Luber, left. Mrs. Patricia Bridges checks her background coloration with photo held by Ken Walter.

HAIR-RAISING—Christina Herdson probably will not frighten many crows while acting the human scarecrow in a field near Southampton, N.Y. But, she may startle many passers-by with the eerie effect achieved with her long hair.

Colleges

Continued from Page One

plus another $200,000 for the Beebe branch.

Spokesmen for the colleges were heard as the council resumed consideration of estimates from the individual state schools.

Dr. Carl Reng, president of Arkansas State, told the council that "I appreciate your listening to our astronomical dreams—by the time you add them all up it seems like an impossible situation."

He said State's most urgent need was for a new library to avoid the possibility of loss of accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Tech President J. W. Hull said his school sorely needs a new science building.

Monday, the University of Arkansas and all the other state colleges joined to ask for a 17-million appropriation to take care of what they termed emergency requirements.

A $10 million revenue bond issue, requiring only legislative, and not popular, approval, would be included in the joint plan.

Also on today's docket of hearings for individual colleges were Southern State and Arkansas A&M.

Southern State has filed a $3,651,472 estimate; A&M, one of $3,352,604.

In keeping with the established pattern, today's requests were above what the colleges would have received had a proposed $60 state construction bond issue been approved. It was turned down by the voters on June 27.

The council was scheduled to wind up its formal hearings on how to spend $11.7 in surplus state funds late today.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus indicated Monday he may decide by Friday when to call a special legislative session to deal with fiscal needs.

He said he is waiting for the end of the council hearings, but added that he wants to call the special session for this month.

The governor said he has reached no decision on what method should be used to finance state construction needs. He said a plan under which the state would charge interest on money it has on deposit in state banks is being studied.

The colleges Monday asked the council for $2 million of the surplus which they would put with a $5 million allocation from the revenue stabilization fund and the $10 million revenue bond issue. Those items would make up the construction fund.

Bonds would be retired by fees charged by the colleges and by a $600,000 legislative appropriation.

J. W. Hull, president of Arkansas Tech, revealed the plan and said it could not wait until the 1963 legislative session.

Today, Arkansas Tech, Arkansas State College, Arkansas State Beebe branch, Southern State and Arkansas A&M will outline their construction needs. Other colleges did this Monday.

The plan was explained to the council by William J. Smith, whose law firm will draw up a bill for presentation to a forthcoming special session of the legislature.

Hull said there would be no new tax involved.

Some Cities to Name Mayors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Paragould, El Dorado and Malvern voters today made final selections of Democratic candidates for mayor. At least two other cities also had elections.

El Dorado actually had two elections—a Democratic runoff primary between Mayor Roy Goudy and Monroe Hunsicker and a Republican primary in which three aldermanic candidates were unopposed. GOP leaders said it was the first Republican primary in the county's history.

In Paragould Mayor G. A. Wood and J. T. (Chigger) Brown met in a runoff. At Malvern, which didn't have a primary July 25, Mayor Lester L. Pate was opposed by Howard Wright.

Benton and Coal Hill (Johnson County) also had elections. Benton residents voted on a proposed $650,000 revenue bond issue to buy a new generator for the city power plant and Coal Hill residents balloted on a proposal to advance the city to second class status.

Senators Get

Continued from Page One

quire that financing of the loan program come from annual appropriations.

Aiken, in another prepared speech, called the authority to borrow from the Treasury "primarily a grab for power" that would rob Congress of its control over the foreign aid program.

"The President requests Congress to give him authority to bet $9 billion in the game of power politics, with no assurance that it will not be lost," Aiken said.

Texts of the speeches were released in advance but there was no assurance they would be delivered today. Sen William Proxmire, D-Wis., after speaking nearly nine hours Monday, expected to talk for at least another eight hours today against Senate confirmation of Lawrence J. O'Connor Jr. as a member of the Federal Power Commission.

A total of $1,187,000,000 of the loan money for the first year is part of this year's $4,326,500,000 foreign aid program on which the Senate hoped to resume debate today, with no votes expected until later in the week.

Administration leaders contended they have enough votes to reject the Byrd amendment by a razor-edge margin. Should the Byrd forces lose, a series of amendments will be proposed to put other congressional controls over the development loan program.

How Ark. Lawmakers Have Voted

WASHINGTON (AP)—How Arkansas members of Congress were recorded on recent roll calls:

House
On passage, 224-170, of compromise farm bill, thus sending it to White House: For—Gathings, Harris, Mills, Trimble. Not voting—Alford, Norrell.

On passage, 198-150, of bill to streamline the procedures of the Federal Communications Commission: For—Gathings, Harris, Mills, Trimble. Against—Alford. Not voting—Norrell, who was paired for passage.

Senate
On confirmation, 73-17, of nomination of Spottswood W. Robinson, III, of the District of Columbia, to be member of the Civil Rights Commission: Not voting—McClellan, Fulbright. Both were announced as opposing confirmation.

On passage, 50-32, of bill to establish 10-year program of oceanographic research and surveys: For—Fulbright, McClellan. On Anderson, D-N.M., motion, adopted 46-25, to table Proxmire, D-Wis., amendment to reduce items in Independent Offices appropriations bill to President Kennedy's budget recommendations: For—Fulbright. Against—McClellan.

On McNamara, D-Mich., amendment adopted 67-19 to add to independent Offices appropriations bill $125,000 for research in housing for the aged: For—Fulbright. Against—McClellan.

On Proxmire, D-Wis., amendment, rejected 17-63, to eliminate from same bill items totaling $22,498,000 for post office and fed-

Technical Stuff in Arkla Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. rate case drones on in highly technical language before the Arkansas Public Service Commission today.

The gas company completed its case Monday after rate consultant J. E. Flanders of Jefferson City, Mo., said Arkla is short by $1,147,939 in revenue it is allowed to make, despite a $1.2 million increase in minimum service charges.

Flanders added that exhibits which several Arkansas cities claim show the gas company is making too much money contain numerous errors.

Attorneys for the cities cross-examine him today.

The hearing is over whether Arkla should be allowed to retain and continue the charge increase, which it put into effect April 1. The monthly minimum went up from $1.10 to $1.80 per customer in a number of cities.

Flanders testified that the company should be getting $17,622,000 annually from distribution of gas to commercial and domestic consumers, based on a permitted rate of return of 6.34 per cent. But, he said, the company is getting only 15,480,680. The increase would amount to $2,220,932 annually.

The gas company has said it does not plan another rate increase, even if the Public Service Commission rules it is not making as much as it is allowed.

In other testimony Monday, Robert J. Destiche of Dallas, regional manager of the subsidiary Arkla Air Conditioning Corp., denied the cities' charge that subsidiary charges were being passed on in the form of rate increases to Arkla gas customers.

He said the operations were entirely separate, that his company charged Arkla the same price as it did other buyers and that only a small part of the air conditioning company's business was with Arkla.

eral buildings: Against the amendment—Fulbright, McClellan.

On Proxmire, D-Wis., amendments rejected 22-67 to cut $297 million from appropriation bill for Labor and Health-Education-Welfare departments: Against—Fulbright. Not voting—McClellan.

On Bush, R-Conn., amendment rejected 37-50 to cut from same bill $44,659,000 in appropriations for the National Institutes of Health: Against—Fulbright, McClellan.

VISIBLE MEANS OF SUPPORT—These West Germans are supporting a year-old historical event as they carry their hands behind their backs. In 1140, their small town of Weinsberg was besieged by an enemy army. The siege commander told the women that they could leave the town, carrying only their most valuable possessions. They did and outsmarted the enemy. They carried their husbands, brothers and fathers out on their backs, saving their lives.

Reaction to Khrushchev's Talk Offer

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe reacted today to Premier Khrushchev's "let's talk it over" speech with a mixture of caution, skepticism and a willingness to negotiate.

Most British newspapers agreed with Khrushchev that it was time for East-West leaders to sit down at a table and negotiate the pressing issues of Berlin and Germany.

But in France and West Germany, there was caution and some suspicion of Khrushchev's motives. Some newspapers and politicians felt that the Soviet premier had not changed the crisis climate.

"Negotiation in his eyes can be conceived only on the basis of the settlement he envisages for solving the Berlin crisis," said Paris' conservative Figaro.

Despite the urgency of the situation, many newspapers throughout Europe gave top billing to Soviet cosmonaut Gherman Titov. Even the Communist party newspapers in London, Rome and Paris considered the space traveler the biggest newsmaker of the day. So did the London Daily Mirror and Daily Herald, and early editions in Rome and Paris Copenhagen papers were too preoccupied with Titov to mention his premier editorially.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt said Khrushchev had done nothing to reduce East-West tensions. Brandt assailed Khrushchev's statement that self-determination for Germany was just a hypocritical Western slogan. The mayor said the Germans' elementary wish for self-determination cannot be passed off with the art of dialectics.

The London Daily Mail called for a summit meeting with Khrushchev "at the earliest moment to find out what his real intentions are." The London Times said the door on both sides is open to negotiation.

"Mr. K wants recognition for East Germany," said Britain's favorite Daily Herald. "The West wants copper-bottomed guarantees for the freedom of Berlin. Here is surely a basis for talks."

Lord Beaverbrook's independent Daily Express also called for bargaining and indicated the West

Hope Star

Published every Tuesday afternoon
STAR PUBLISHING CO.
Mr. E. S. Palmer, President
Mr. H. Washburn, Secy-Treas.
at The Star Building
Star of Hope Press 1927
Consolidated January 15, 1929
512-14 South Walnut Street
Hope, Arkansas

Also: M. Washburn, Editor & Publisher
Paul M. Jones, Managing Editor
Donal Parker, Advertising Mgr.
E. M. (Red) Ragel, Jr., Circ. Mgr.
George W. Houser, Mech. Dept.

Entered as second class matter & the Post Office at Hope, Arkansas under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Subscription Rates (payable in advance)

By carrier in Hope and neighboring areas
One month	$ 1.50
Three months	3.50
One year	12.00
By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada
One month	$.80
Three months	1.80
One year	6.00
All other mail
Three months	2.00
One year	7.00
By mail, in other areas
One month	$ 1.50
Three months	3.50
One year	12.00

New! Advertising Representatives
Arkansas Dailies, Inc., 1602 Ste. 14
Bldg. Memphis 2, Tenn.; 505 Texan
Bank Bldg., Dallas 2, Texas; 360 N
Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Ill.; 60 E
42nd St., New York 17, N. Y.; 1765
Pennacot Bldg., Detroit 2, Mich
Terminal Bldg., Oklahoma City 2, Okla.

Member of The Associated Press
The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all the local news printed in this newspaper, as well as all AP news dispatches.

Honors for Auto Body Works Owner

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Dave

Ward, who owns an auto body works plant here, will be honored Thursday night for hiring older—and younger—workers. The American Legion, the state Employment Security Division, and the Governor's Commission on Aging will recognize him for hiring almost half of his staff of 220 workers in the over-45 age bracket. Arkansas State Teachers College will honor him for hiring a large number of college students.

should give Khrushchev the recognition he demands for the Communist East German regime.

The Times compared Khrushchev's speech with President Kennedy's and found striking similarities.

"Both speakers," it said, "used language as tough as any that has been heard since the end of the war, but both came back to the possibility of negotiations."

The liberal Manchester Guardian took the gravest view. "Both sides remain set on their collision courses; and neither will make the first move to end the crisis."

LEWIS-McLARTY STORE WIDE

SUMMER CLEARANCE

★ Starts Wednesday Morning—4 Days Only ★

Special Purchase! Table Cloths • Colors: Gold, Green, Pink, Blue, Brown. 54x54 . . . 1.59 54x72 . . . 2.49 62x90 . . . 3.98 64x104 . . . 4.98 • NAPKINS To Match 39c	SPRING AND SUMMER DRESSES REDUCED AGAIN! • Sizes 10 to 20 • Jr. and Half Sizes VALUES TO 14.95 . . . $5.00 VALUES TO 24.95 . . . $9.00	ALL NYLON SLIPS — By Berkshire • First Quality • Lace Trim • Size 32 to 42 • Reg. Price $5.00 $2.99
Dress Fabrics • Cottons & Blends • 38 to 45 in. Wide • Values to 1.98 • Over 1000 Yards ON SALE 99c Yd	CLEAN UP OF ALL MEN'S SUMMER SPORT SHIRTS $1 - $2 - $3	SPRING and SUMMER DRESS — SPORTSWEAR FABRICS • Values to 1.19 CLOSE OUT 50c Yd.
Women's Better SLEEPWEAR • Fine Quality Cotton • Reg. Length Gowns • Dress Length Gowns • Pajamas • Baby Dolls $2.99	All Men's Spring and Summer SLACKS R-E-D-U-C-E-D • Wool and Dacron • Dacron and Cotton • Rayon and Acetate • Wash N' Wear • All Sizes 5.99-7.99-9.98	5 MEN'S WASH N' WEAR SUITS Sizes: 35, 36, 37, 38, 40 • Ivy Style • Close Out $11.99

Small Lots In All Dept's. MARKED DOWN FOR QUICK CLEARANCE

Big Assortment JEWELRY 1/2 Price

SOCIETY

Phone 7-9431 Between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Calendar

Tuesday, Aug. 8

The Builders Class of First Baptist Church will have a potluck supper at the church on Tuesday, Aug. 8, at 7 p. m. Hostesses will be Mrs. Roy Seowald, Mrs. Leo Hartsfield, and Mrs. Mable Hanson.

The Cora Mae Auxiliary of Garfield Memorial Baptist Church will meet Tuesday night, Aug. 8, at 7:30 at Fair Park. All members are urged to attend.

Thursday, Aug. 10

The Hope B. & P. W., Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs will have a joint meeting at Hotel Barlow at 7 p. m. Thursday, Aug. 10. National Security Committee will present a program on Communism based on the book "Masters of Deceit," by J. Edgar Hoover.

Tuesday, Aug. 15

The Kathleen Mallory Circle of W. M. W. to First Methodist Church will have the mission book "Christian Sharing of Possessions" at the Fellowship Hall Tuesday, Aug. 15, at 7:30 p. m. All circles wishing to attend are invited.

W. M. A. of Garrett Memorial Meets

The W. M. A. of Garrett Memorial Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Virginia Robinson on Aug. 7 at 2. The opening prayer was rendered by Ruby Warren. The subject of the program was "Joy to the Kingdom." Those taking part in the program were Mrs. James Braden, Mrs. Bryan Clark, Mrs. Fred Purdie, Mrs. Wade Warren, Mrs. Larkin Buchanan, and Mrs. Waddle Cunningham. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Bryan Clark. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served to 12 present by the hostess.

Thomas Richardson Ellledge Celebrates 90th Birthday

On Sunday, Aug. 6, a birthday dinner in honor of Thomas Richardson Ellledge, formerly of Hope, who celebrated his 90th birthday on Aug. 2, was held at Waldo. There were 63 present for the dinner.

Brides-Elect Honored

Miss Ann Cole, bride-elect of James Gilbert, and Miss Judy Kaye Wright, bride-elect of Tim Walter of Abilene, Texas, were honored with a luncheon Saturday, Aug. 5, in the Roy Anderson home by Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Thompson Evans, Jr.

Miss Cole wore a pink cotton frock with matching accessories and Miss Wright was attired in black linen with matching accessories. Each pinned a corsage of white fleur d'amour at her shoulder.

Beautiful flowers were seen in the home. The brides' table was covered with a linen and lace cloth and centered with an epergne filled with yellow roses, tuberoses, and yellow summer jasmine. Four individual tables were covered with dahlias and tuberoses. Daisies and tuberoses were on the buffet; the mantle held pink gladioli, and roses were seen at other vantage points.

Miss Wright was presented a gift of silver, and Miss Cole received a wedding handkerchief.

Velda Overheard: "He's the sort of guy who would marry Brigitte Bardot for one reason only... so he could get a free ticket to the movies."

Saenger

TODAY - WED. - THURS. Matinee 1:45 - Nite 7:00

THE JURY HAD TO DECIDE... WAS HE LOVER OR STRANGER?

OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND - DIRK BOGARDE

THE MOST SENSATIONAL AFFAIR OF THIS OR ANY OTHER YEAR!

FRANKLY IT'S HER MOST PROVOCATIVE

BRIGITTE BARDOT "School for Love"

S. V. M. - TOM THUMB

and blue garter for her ceremony. Miss Brenda Hamm, another August bride-elect, was also given a present of silver.

Covers were laid for 25 and also included Miss Mary Jo Hammons of El Dorado, Miss Kay Gresham of North Little Rock, Miss Linda Rogers of Memphis, Misses Betty Bryant, Carolyn Yarbrough, Sandra Hobbs, Judy Rae McDowell, Sue Moore, Carol Coop, Mary Lou Park, Anna Whitman, Tonna Taylor, Denny Hefner, Caryl Joy Case, Suzanne Sommerville, Mary Margaret Daniels, Georganne Lowe, Sherrie Hankins, Mrs. Jim Cole, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. Ansel Gilbert, and Mrs. Dale Jones.

Births

Rev. and Mrs. William Burton Osborn announce the arrival of a baby boy, named William Burton Osborn, Jr. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Barton of El Dorado, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Osborn of Hope.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Bill Horn and Barry have returned home to Springfield, Mo., after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Leverett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds of New Iberia, La., have returned home after visiting relatives in Hope.

Mrs. F. C. Malone and Miss Peggy Malone have returned to Washington, D. C., after spending three weeks with Col. and Mrs. Frank Malone and family of Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Joe Langley of Conway spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie McCorkle. Miss Peggy Lynn McCorkle returned to Conway with the Langleys for a visit.

Going to the 33rd annual meeting of the Arkansas Council of Home Demonstration Clubs at Fayetteville Tuesday-Friday were Mrs. Ernest Graham, chairman of the State HDC Health and Safety Committee; Mrs. Lester Kent, president of the Hempstead County IID Council; and Mrs. Bettie Duncan, Hempstead county IID agent.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCloughan of New York City arrived Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCloughan.

Mrs. Edwin Ward, Mrs. F. E. Russell, and Mrs. R. D. Haynes went to Hot Springs this weekend for an outing with former classmates. Others assembling at the home of Mrs. Edwin J. Baker on Lake Hamilton were: Mrs. Basil Newton and Mrs. Ben Carter of Little Rock, and Miss Jean Laster of Hot Springs. They were joined on Saturday by Mrs. Ruffin Boyett, Mrs. John Greene, and Mrs. Louis Schneider, all of Little Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fant of Little Rock spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Fant and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Cox.

Visiting Mr and Mrs. C. D. Lester is their grandson, Mark Lester of Little Rock.

Miss Judy Hammons of Little Rock spent the weekend with Mrs. Foy Hammons and Miss Troy Hammons.

Mrs. Bob Jones and Mary Elizabeth of Dimmitt, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridges and Bill. They will be joined later by Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Dennis Crafton and daughters and Miss Cynthia Collier have returned home from a visit with relatives in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Fred Alfaro of Shreveport spent the weekend with Mrs. J. S. McDowell and Mrs. C. C. Collins.

Mr and Mrs A. M. McDowell of

JFK Tests in Congress Next Week

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's biggest tests in dealing with Congress come in the next few weeks.

So far he has relied heavily on President Eisenhower's method of avoiding temper tantrums on either side. He has done pretty well.

But his programs which Congress approved have been fairly conservative and, in the main, noncontroversial.

The real tough ones — foreign aid, federal aid to education and medical care for the aged — are in serious trouble. The medical care bill is in such distress it looks dead for 1961.

Kennedy has given the impression of more determined follow-through than Eisenhower, although whether this is true will be shown in the way he handles himself with Congress from now on.

Eisenhower from the beginning acted as though his White House leadership job were to keep down conflict, not only abroad but at home.

But this business of staying above the strife in dealing with Congress—when important legislation runs into serious opposition — could be and was at time fatal.

Kennedy has worked hard in two directions to get Congress to go along with him:

1. Through his staff members who maintain constant and personal contact with the senators and representatives.

2. Through his low direct contacts with them — White House conferences, White House breakfasts, telephone calls.

Always, however, he has avoided even minor personal unpleasantness with members of Congress, at least in public.

He has obtained approval for one piece of legislation after another although, as mentioned, almost none of it was of the kind to bring on filibusters or frenzies.

In fact, the one piece of legislation which might have induced a filibuster—civil rights — he very carefully never sent to Congress at all, even though he had promised in the 1960 campaign to make this one of his earliest efforts with Congress in 1961.

The medical care program — after various assaults from within and without Congress, particularly from the American Medical Association—seems to have disappeared for this year in a congressional pigeonhole marked: "Rest in peace."

Kennedy can't claim he exhausted himself fighting for this one. On the other hand, he reportedly has decided to make a last ditch stand for his foreign aid bill.

His recent TV talk on trouble with communism over Berlin—in which he stressed danger and asked for stepped-up defense — may have helped make passage of the foreign aid bill easier.

Congress May Mend Foreign Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders conceded today Congress probably will amend the foreign aid bill but clung to hope that President Kennedy's main proposals would survive.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas said there has been no indication from the White House or the Democratic leadership in Congress of any willingness to compromise on the administration's plan to finance long-term economic development projects with funds borrowed from the Treasury.

Rayburn reiterated the administration's no-compromise stand as Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-K., threw his support behind long-range foreign aid as recommended by Kennedy.

Rayburn and other Democratic leaders, including Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, met for an hour with Kennedy this morning at their regular Tuesday breakfast.

Afterward Rayburn told reporters the administration measure may be amended before it clears the Senate and House but added: "I don't think that fundamentally it will be too much hurt."

Wasp Sting Fatal

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A suburban Washington Township man was stung in the neck by a wasp Monday and died shortly after it was believed the stinger hit the jugular vein of Karl K. Barlowe, 50, and that the poison went directly to his heart.

Fort Worth spent the weekend with Mrs. Mary Collins. Mrs. C. C. Collins visited her daughter, Mrs. Tom Berry, and family, in Crossett last week.

KITTEN GOES TO COLLEGE—Bridget gets special attention from two of his 150 lovely fellow students at American Airlines' Stewardess College at Carter Field in Texas. Although he is one of the few males named Bridget, he doesn't mind as long as Jean Trengove, left, and Jill Plater give him his morning milk.

DOROTHY DIX

Parents Wallflowers In Son's Home

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I love my son's wife, but somehow everything I do or say strikes a sour note.

We live 200 miles apart. She and our son come home with their four children every vacation and spend the entire time with her family. My home is large, attractive and neat as a pin but will my boy and his wife stay overnight? No!

When we go to their home, about twice a year, my husband and I are like two wallflowers; son at work, wife running to neighbors to get somebody's hair, have coffee or just sit.

Evenings she and the son turn on TV and watch it till they fall asleep, or she trips off to the neighbors again, telling us to go to bed early. She's gone till three A. M. card-playing. We say nothing. If we stay away we miss seeing our son and grandchildren.

We used to take gifts and spend large sums of money on them but seldom got a thank-you. As a friend says, "You can't buy love." Should we quit altogether? — Lonesome Mother.

Dear Lonesome Mother: We come into this world alone and we go out alone. Be self-sufficient. Accept your daughter-in-law's terms. If she wants to go her way, go yours. Let her make the advances for a change. Once she and your son realize that you and your husband can get along very nicely by yourselves, she'll come running to do your hair, chat over coffee and be generally friendly. Such is human nature!

Dear Helen: Mine is a May and December marriage. I am 18, my husband is 37. He's kind as kind can be and I love him very much, but things are so complicated I don't know whether I'm coming or going. I used to be engaged to his son and, on top of that, nursed his first wife till she died, then stayed on at his insistence to look after him. We married so there would be no talk. I'm wondering if I made a mistake, even though there was never anything wrong in our relationship. What do you think? — Young Wife.

Dear Young Wife: Thirty-nine years difference in age between you and your husband means that you'll have to adjust yourself to living with two generations—yours and his. It can be done, provided you are adaptable. And there-in lies the key to making a success of your marriage. You've promised to love, honor and obey this man. It shouldn't be too difficult; for, in a sense, you've been a member of his family ever since you went with his son. However, it will be difficult if you start doubting. Stick to your marriage vows.

Dear Helen: Should a woman play the weakling where a man is concerned? I am a 28-year-old physical education teacher who naturally excels in sports. This is bad when it comes to dating. For instance, a very attractive man recently asked me to golf with him. The results were embarrassing. I wound up with the "low score and haven't seen him since. This is not the first time I've had that experience. Should I keep on being a good match for men, or

August Pre-School SPECIALS

All Better Permanents 20% Discount

Colonial Budget Waves $5.00 Colonial Teacher's Special 4.00 Includes: Style Cut, Shampoo, Treatment, Shampoo & Set, Manicure.

COLONIAL BEAUTY SALON 817 W. Ave B For early & late appointments, Phone 7-3408 for Janelle or Bobbie.

Volunteers Surge Into Armed Forces

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sustained surge of volunteers has followed President Kennedy's call for a buildup of U.S. armed forces and the announcement of higher draft calls.

Defense Department sources said today a sampling of enlistment trends in widely scattered areas showed there has been no letup in the increased rate that followed the President's speech two weeks ago.

Major emphasis is on the Army which is authorized to add about 133,000 men to build up to over 1 million men.

One of the first efforts will be to train manpower to fill out three present training divisions in the Strategic Army Force—STRAF—then convert those divisions into combat units. The three divisions are the 1st Infantry at Ft. Riley, Kan., the 2nd Infantry at Ft. Benning, Ga., and the 2nd Armored at Ft. Hood, Tex.

A combat infantry division has an authorized strength of 13,700 men, an armored division 14,600. Present permanent strength—cadres of trained men—in those divisions is believed to be less than half of authorized combat strength.

The Defense Department and Army now are completing detailed plans for adding manpower, training men and converting the three STRAF divisions to combat outfits. Then they will be added to the 14 combat divisions now in the Army.

The threat of the draft is spurring voluntary recruiting for all close a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Today's offering: "Glum to Glow."

Dorothy Dix is a registered trademark. A BPI Syndicate Feature services. Only the Army uses the draft. President Kennedy, in his July 25 nationwide address, said that draft calls might be doubled or tripled. Subsequently, the quota for August, which had been set on July 12 at 0,000, was boosted to 13,000.

FASHION FACES—Three interesting faces on the fashion scene. They're among the models who showed fall-winter fashions in Paris: Olga, left, Karen, right, and Varia, below. Make-up still appears centered about the eyes this season.

Announcement of the September quota is expected within a few days. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has said it will be at least 20,000.

Latest volunteer, first-enlistment recruiting figures are for June and those are still an estimate.

The Army estimate is about 12,000, compared with 6,400 for May. However, there is a normal sharp increase annually between May and June which results from the end of school years, when youngsters decide to enlist and get their military obligations behind them. The estimated volunteers for the Air Force in June totaled 11,000, compared with 7,000 in May; the Navy, 11,405 compared with 4,700 and the Marines, 2,643 compared with 1,900.

But the trends now being noticed, since July 25, "are better than they would be seasonally," a Pentagon spokesman said today.

Beautiful Dyed-To-Match SKIRTS and SWEATERS

By Koret of Calif. and Jo Collins

— Put Yours On Layaway Today —

THE FASHION SHOPPE 103 W. 2nd in Hope

FINAL SALE

ENTIRE STOCK SUMMER READY TO WEAR FROM OUR STOCK AND FROM LADIES SPECIALTY SHOP STORES AT HOPE AND NASHVILLE!

DRESSES—SKIRTS—BLOUSES SWIMSUITS—HANDBAGS—ETC.

This is not a Sale you can shop in 15 minutes and go home. Come prepared to spend some time browsing, if you don't you'll miss many bargains. QUALITY — NATIONALLY ADVERTISED BRAND NAME GOODS AT BELOW DISCOUNT STORE PRICES.

DRESSES AS LOW AS $3.00 | SKIRTS AS LOW AS $2.00

HANDBAGS AS LOW AS $1.39 | BLOUSES AS LOW AS $2.00

FIRST AND FINAL MARKDOWN ON Beach Towels $1.99

Corner Store

2ND AND MAIN ST., HOPE, ARK. BARGAINS GALORE

Nationally Known Swim Suits As Low As $7.78

SELL FRESH FARM PRODUCTS; FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, POULTRY AND MEATS

WANT AD RATES

All Want Ads are payable in advance but ad will be accepted over the telephone and accommodation accounts allowed with the understanding the account is payable when statement is rendered.

Number of Words	One Day	Three Days	Six Days	One Month
1 to 15	.85	1.50	2.25	6.50
16 to 20	1.10	1.80	2.75	8.50
21 to 25	1.30	2.20	3.20	9.50
26 to 30	1.50	2.40	3.60	11.00
31 to 35	1.70	2.70	4.00	12.50
36 to 40	1.90	3.00	4.50	14.00
41 to 45	2.10	3.40	5.00	15.50
46 to 50	2.30	3.70	5.50	17.00

Initials of one or more letters, group of figures as house or telephone numbers count as one word.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

1 Time 90c per inch per day
 2 Times 75c per inch per day
 3 Times 65c per inch per day

STANDING CARD ADS
 $15.00 per inch per month

Rates quoted above are for consecutive insertions. Irregular or split ads will take the one-day rate. All daily classified advertising copy will be accepted until 5 p.m. for publication the following day. The publisher reserves the right to refuse or edit all advertisements offered for publication and to reject any objectionable advertising submitted.

The Hope Star will not be responsible for errors in Want Ads unless errors are called to our attention after FIRST insertion of ad and then for ONLY the ONE incorrect insertion. PHONE: 7-3431

2 - Notice

NOTICE: Positively no hunting allowed on my land and no fox hounds in my pasture. A. P. Davis, 6-11-23, Blevins Route 1, 8-7-61p

SUBSCRIBE to Texarkana Gazette - Best reading materials; Early Delivery. Phone local agent Glendon Griffith, 7-4325 8-7-1mop

5 - Funeral Directors

AMBULANCE SERVICE, Burial Association, OAKCREST FUNERAL HOME, Dial 7-6774

AMBULANCE SERVICE, Oxygen equipped, Two-Way Radio, Burial Association, Herndon, Corneliussen Funeral Home, Phone 7-4836, 6-28-1f

29 - Sewing Machines

SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO. Sales and service, repairs on any make machine. Dial 7-6713, 11-30-1f

34 - Slaughtering Processing

RALPH Montgomery Market, custom slaughtering. Meat for your deep freeze. We buy cattle and hogs. 11-1f

CUSTOM Slaughtering, Beef or pork cut and wrapped for your deep freeze. Contact Barry's Grocery, 7-4404, 7-29-1f

WE ARE dressing poultry, processing beef and pork, for everyone. Call MOORE BROS. 7-4431, 8-19-1f

49A - General Construction

BLUE CHAT for driveways, top soil, fill sand, dozier for yard leveling. Lavender Construction Co. Dial 7-3756, 8-2-1mop

SHELL HOMES

$1795 - or - $3495
FINISHED HOMES
 $10 Down
 Please Let Us Furnish You With Estimates
HOPE
 Builders Supply
 Dial 7-2381 6-22-1f

46 - Services Offered

POR PASTURE clipping call Larry Moore, 7-3853. Good tractor, new bush hog and want to work. 5-25-1f

21 - Used Cars

21 - Used Cars

USED CAR VALUES

1959 FORD FAIRLANE
 4-door, Fordomatic, radio and heater and power steering $1395

1958 FORD FAIRLANE
 4-door, 6 cylinder, radio, heater and overdrive . . $995

1958 FORD FAIRLANE
 Fordomatic, 8 cylinder, radio and heater, air conditioned $1195

1959 FORD CUSTOMLINE
 2-door, 6 cylinder, radio and heater, new engine $1095

1955 FORD CUSTOMLINE
 4-door, 8 cylinder, radio and heater $495

HOPE AUTO CO.
 220 W. Second
 Dial 7-2371

26 - Radio & TV

FOR SALE: Philco console, model 21" T. V., new picture tube; blond oak bedroom suite, includes bed, dresser, and chest; and gas Maytag stove. Phone 7-2403, 8-7-31c

34A-Locker Rentals

Rent a FROZEN FOOD LOCKER
 • Low Rates
 • Convenient Location
Hope Locker Plant
 415 S. Main St.
 Dial 7-4281 7-25-1mop

44 - Dogs

FOR SALE: Dachshund puppies, 10 weeks old. Reasonable to purchasers offering good homes, fenced yards. Litter registered. Phone 887-2323 or write P. O. Box 60, Prescott Ark. 8-4-31c

8-WEEKS-OLD puppies to give away. Mrs. Ray Allison, 1319 S. Elm. Phone 7-2780, 8-8-31c

62 - Barber Service

NEW AND MODERN, Perry's Barber Shop at Perry's Truck Stop, Highway 67 East is now open. Hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day except Sunday. Delmer Pipkin, barber. 5-26-1f

69 - Truck Rentals

RENT a new truck for moving furniture, etc. Local or long distance. All furniture pads, dollies and loading equipment furnished. AVIS Rent-A-Truck, at PERRY'S TRUCK STOP, Hwy. 67 East, Dial 7-9974, 8-2-1f

90 - For Sale

FOR SALE: Light bulbs by Hope Lions Club on August 21. 8-7-121c

93 - Houses, Unfurnished

HOUSE FOR RENT - 202 South Hervey. Now vacant. Phone 7-4486, 8-7-31c

94 - Apartments, Furnished

FOR RENT: Air conditioned nicely furnished five rooms and bath, adults, no drinking, 801 East Third Street. 6-22-1f

FOR RENT: Furnished apartment. Middlebrooks Grocery. Dial 7-3791, 8-8-31p

101 - Houses for Sale

FOR SALE: By owner - Attractive 2 bedroom home on Park Drive, 90 x 150 ft. lot. Shrubbery and trees. See or call Ferrel Baker. Business Phone 7-3610, Res. 7-2213, 8-5-31c

102 - Real Estate for Sale

DO YOU WANT TO SELL OR TRADE YOUR PROPERTY?
 We need farms, ranches, and homes to replace recent sales and for our large list of customers. Call us today for expert advice and quick results on the sale or trade of your property.
Foster Land & Realty Company
 Hope's Only Realtor
 Members of International Traders Club
 Day Phone PProspect 7-4691
 Night Phone -
 Vincent W. Foster PProspect 7-3427
 Dorsey McRae . . . PProspect 7-2757
 J. D. Boswell . . . PProspect 7-2122 7-24-1f

The Negro Community

Rather Mike
 Phone 7-4678 or 7-4474

Calendar of Events

Four States Beauty Contest And Swim Meet

The City Park Commission will sponsor the first Four States Beauty Contest and Swim Meet at City Park Friday night, August 11.

Activities will begin at the park at 10 o'clock a. m., consisting of Baseball games, and other games. Admission for all day, 25c and 50c. Come prepared to stay all day and enjoy yourself. Food will be on sale at the concessions stand. The Swim meet will begin at 5:00 o'clock and the Beauty Contest will begin at 8:30 o'clock. The Four States Run-off will be held and the winners of the Run-off, will compete for the "Miss Four States" title. The contestants for the Swim Meet and the Beauty Contest will hail from Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma. Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of Recreation; C. B. Smith, Chairman of the Park Commission.

It has been estimated that man gets 83 per cent of his knowledge through the sense of sight.

73 - Wanted To Buy

NOTICE: Top prices paid for persimmon and gum timber. Contact Saylor, 2 miles north of Hope on Highway 29. 3-9-1f

47 - Repair Service

Very well, thank you. Barbara is very active in club work and her husband Jim is such a fine, young man." She pointed to a framed photograph. "There they are with the children. And the photograph next to it is of my grandchildren with 'theirs' children. I'm a great-grandmother."

Mrs. Abernathy gave the stranger a confidential wink.

He returned the wink. "I understand you drew up a new will today?"

"Yes, I did, Mr. Barton, my lawyer, was here this morning. Fine young man. His grandfather was my husband's lawyer, you know."

The stranger nodded.

"It hardly seems possible that Fred-I believe you knew my husband-that Fred has been dead for 35 years. Ah, well, I was telling you that I drew up a new will. I'm leaving the insurance and the real estate and just everything in a trust fund for the grandchildren. Of course, I had Mr. Barton write down the personal things and what they are to go to. I think everybody should do that, don't you?"

"A very wise thing, Mrs. Abernathy," said the stranger.

The old woman rocked back and forth in her chair.

She did not speak and the stranger watched her with a friendly smile. He was something of an old friend to her.

At last she slowly opened her eyes. A ghost of a smile crossed her face.

"I've been thinking about you all afternoon," replied Mrs. Abernathy. "It's surprising how much has been written and said about what you do."

The stranger permitted himself a modest smile. Then he looked at his watch. "It's getting late, Mrs. Abernathy."

"Of course, it is. I'll just turn out the lights and be ready in a moment. You were very kind to wait this long."

The stranger smiled and said nothing.

Obituary

Mrs. Alicia Abernathy, 89, died today of natural causes. She was the widow of the late Fred Abernathy and is survived by her daughter, Mrs. James Morton, three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. She came to the community as a bride 18 years of age.

THE END

From Records at Hempstead Courthouse

CHANCERY DOCKET

Barbara Myers Hampton vs. Bobby W. Hampton, Divorce.

Earl S. Carman et al. vs. Leighton Jewell Carmen et al. Complaint.

CIVIL SUITS

Dean Murphy d.b.a. Deans Truck Stop vs. Express Rental & Leasing Co., Plaintiff prays judgment in sum of $198.04.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Bill J. Gilbert, Fulton, Missa Bristow, Fulton.

Griffin Whiteside, Gilmer, Mrs. Norma Laverne Arnold, Gilmer.

Wives Like to Charm Husbands

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) - Lady, would you like to get on better terms with your husband?

This is the goal of many wives. But they don't know how to set out to charm that favorite beast in their lives.

Husband-pleasing has become a vanishing feminine art in many a U.S. home. It has too often been replaced by husband-baiting which some wives for some reason find more exciting.

But to get a husband to eat out of your hand, so to speak, all you have to do is to butter him up like a piece of toast. His little ego needs endless bolstering.

A husband usually thinks of life as a conspiracy against him. He feels everybody from the bus driver to his employer takes him for granted. What he secretly yearns for is someone who doesn't take him for granted—but instead goes to the trouble of making him feel important.

You can be that one. Here are a few sample sentences of the kind that are most likely to turn him into your loving little moon calf:

"Don't get up, Fred. I'll find some matches. I just love to light your cigars for you."

"How can I blame that little blonde for trying to monopolize you at the cocktail party? After all, you were the only real hunk in the room."

"Now just lie there on the sofa and relax. Here, let me take off your shoes for you. See, I brought your slippers."

"I don't think it's fat. A lot of men thicken a bit and get more muscular as they grow older."

"Call me a fool if you want to, Fred, but I think it's beginning to grow back in again—right there on top."

"Well, maybe it is a little thin—but a man with a high forehead always looks more intellectual."

"A fur coat? In heaven's name what would I want with a fur coat? They make a girl look so—so hunky."

"No, I don't want to go along on your fishing trip. I think you'll have more fun with the fellows. Besides, I don't believe in wives competing with their husbands, even in sports."

"Just because I've got a diet doesn't mean you have to go on one. You have the steak and potatoes. I'll have the leftover tuna salad."

"You paid for the first honeymoon. Let me pay for the second. I've saved enough for it from my household budget."

"I wouldn't trade husbands with any woman in the world. It sure was my lucky day when you married poor dumb little old me."

For further information — Phone: PProspect 7-4691 or 7-4001.

8-5-31c

SUSPENSE

A Short Short Story

APPOINTMENT WITH A STRANGER

By LESTER ARNO

Old Mrs. Abernathy arose slowly to meet the stranger.

He advanced swiftly toward her and eased her back into the rocker.

"Please, my dear. Don't exert yourself. We still have a little time." He glanced at his watch.

"Oh, I thought we were to leave when you arrived," said Mrs. Abernathy. "Please sit down."

The stranger seated himself.

"You enjoyed your holiday with your daughter?" he asked.

She sat down in her favorite rocker, facing him.

"Very much. It was thoughtful of you to arrange for me to have the time," Mrs. Abernathy yawned and excused herself. "I got so tired these days. I slip off before I know it, sometimes. We were talking about—"

"Your daughter," the stranger prompted.

"Oh, yes. I did have a good time. At least the first few days. It was so nice to be with the children. By the second week—" her voice trailed off.

"It's that way with the children," Mrs. Abernathy continued. "I know they're glad to have me but somehow it seems that I'm something of a burden to them. I have to go to bed early, you know, and I don't seem to sleep well in a strange bed."

"How is your daughter?" the stranger asked.

"Very well, thank you. Barbara is very active in club work and her husband Jim is such a fine, young man."

She pointed to a framed photograph. "There they are with the children. And the photograph next to it is of my grandchildren with 'theirs' children. I'm a great-grandmother."

Mrs. Abernathy gave the stranger a confidential wink.

He returned the wink. "I understand you drew up a new will today?"

"Yes, I did, Mr. Barton, my lawyer, was here this morning. Fine young man. His grandfather was my husband's lawyer, you know."

The stranger nodded.

"It hardly seems possible that Fred-I believe you knew my husband—that Fred has been dead for 35 years. Ah, well, I was telling you that I drew up a new will. I'm leaving the insurance and the real estate and just everything in a trust fund for the grandchildren. Of course, I had Mr. Barton write down the personal things and what they are to go to. I think everybody should do that, don't you?"

"A very wise thing, Mrs. Abernathy," said the stranger.

The old woman rocked back and forth in her chair.

She did not speak and the stranger watched her with a friendly smile. He was something of an old friend to her.

At last she slowly opened her eyes. A ghost of a smile crossed her face.

"I've been thinking about you all afternoon," replied Mrs. Abernathy. "It's surprising how much has been written and said about what you do."

The stranger permitted himself a modest smile. Then he looked at his watch. "It's getting late, Mrs. Abernathy."

"Of course, it is. I'll just turn out the lights and be ready in a moment. You were very kind to wait this long."

The stranger smiled and said nothing.

Obituary

Mrs. Alicia Abernathy, 89, died today of natural causes. She was the widow of the late Fred Abernathy and is survived by her daughter, Mrs. James Morton, three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. She came to the community as a bride 18 years of age.

THE END

From Records at Hempstead Courthouse

CHANCERY DOCKET

Barbara Myers Hampton vs. Bobby W. Hampton, Divorce.

Earl S. Carman et al. vs. Leighton Jewell Carmen et al. Complaint.

CIVIL SUITS

Dean Murphy d.b.a. Deans Truck Stop vs. Express Rental & Leasing Co., Plaintiff prays judgment in sum of $198.04.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Bill J. Gilbert, Fulton, Missa Bristow, Fulton.

Griffin Whiteside, Gilmer, Mrs. Norma Laverne Arnold, Gilmer.

Wives Like to Charm Husbands

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) - Lady, would you like to get on better terms with your husband?

This is the goal of many wives. But they don't know how to set out to charm that favorite beast in their lives.

Husband-pleasing has become a vanishing feminine art in many a U.S. home. It has too often been replaced by husband-baiting which some wives for some reason find more exciting.

But to get a husband to eat out of your hand, so to speak, all you have to do is to butter him up like a piece of toast. His little ego needs endless bolstering.

A husband usually thinks of life as a conspiracy against him. He feels everybody from the bus driver to his employer takes him for granted. What he secretly yearns for is someone who doesn't take him for granted—but instead goes to the trouble of making him feel important.

You can be that one. Here are a few sample sentences of the kind that are most likely to turn him into your loving little moon calf:

"Don't get up, Fred. I'll find some matches. I just love to light your cigars for you."

"How can I blame that little blonde for trying to monopolize you at the cocktail party? After all, you were the only real hunk in the room."

"Now just lie there on the sofa and relax. Here, let me take off your shoes for you. See, I brought your slippers."

"I don't think it's fat. A lot of men thicken a bit and get more muscular as they grow older."

"Call me a fool if you want to, Fred, but I think it's beginning to grow back in again—right there on top."

"Well, maybe it is a little thin—but a man with a high forehead always looks more intellectual."

"A fur coat? In heaven's name what would I want with a fur coat? They make a girl look so—so hunky."

"No, I don't want to go along on your fishing trip. I think you'll have more fun with the fellows. Besides, I don't believe in wives competing with their husbands, even in sports."

"Just because I've got a diet doesn't mean you have to go on one. You have the steak and potatoes. I'll have the leftover tuna salad."

"You paid for the first honeymoon. Let me pay for the second. I've saved enough for it from my household budget."

"I wouldn't trade husbands with any woman in the world. It sure was my lucky day when you married poor dumb little old me."

For further information — Phone: PProspect 7-4691 or 7-4001.

8-5-31c

Court Docket

Municipal Court of Hope, Arkansas August 7, 1961.

City Docket

Jimmy Shackelford, Reckless driving, Forfeited $31.50 cash bond.

James E. Neal, Improper turn in street, Forfeited $11.50 cash bond.

R. C. Stuart, Disturbing the peace, Forfeited $31.50 cash bond.

Leona Stuart, No driver's license, Forfeited $11.50 cash bond.

Paul Somers, Improper turning in street, Forfeited $11.50 cash bond.

Robert Hickman, Carrying a concealed weapon, Forfeited $36.50 cash bond.

Andrew Bishop, Drunkenness, Forfeited $16.50 cash bond.

Norman Smith, Drunkenness, Plea guilty; fined $10.50.

U.S. Official

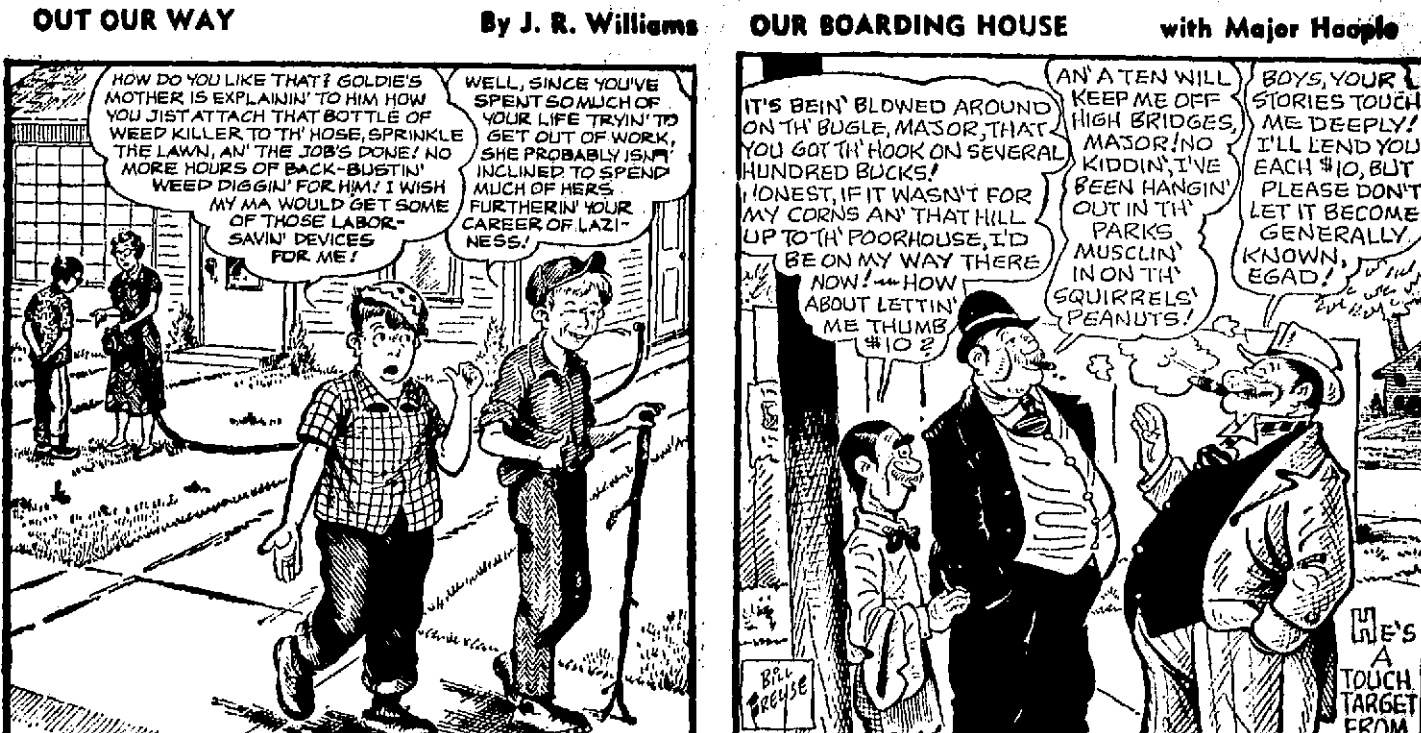

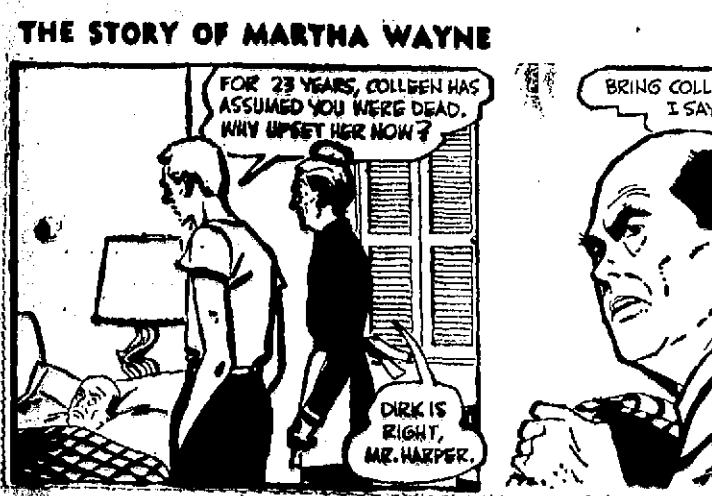

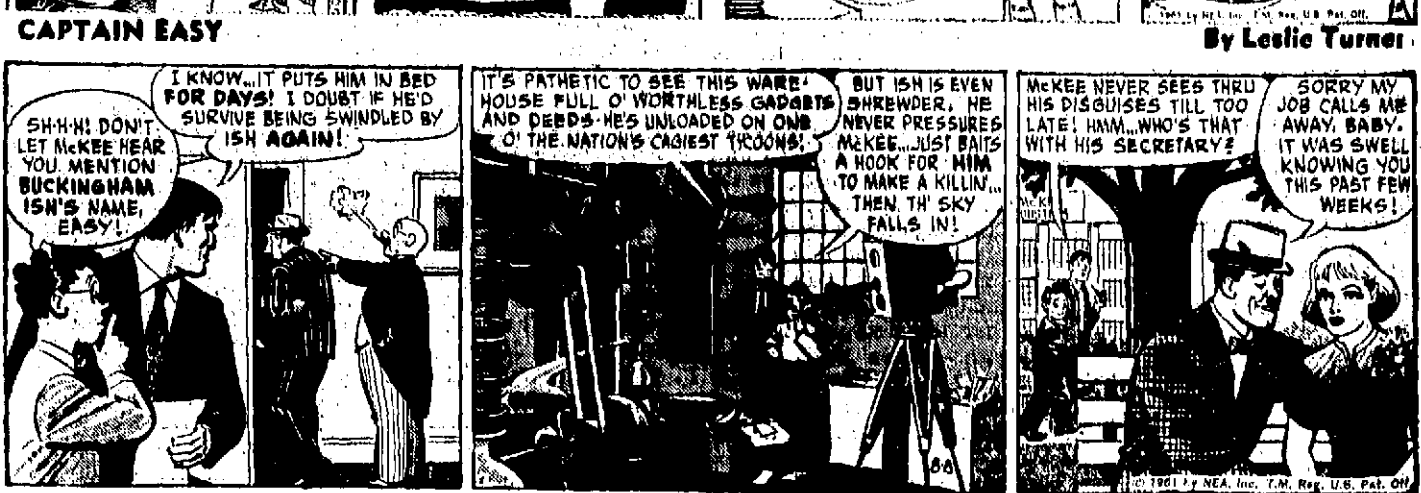

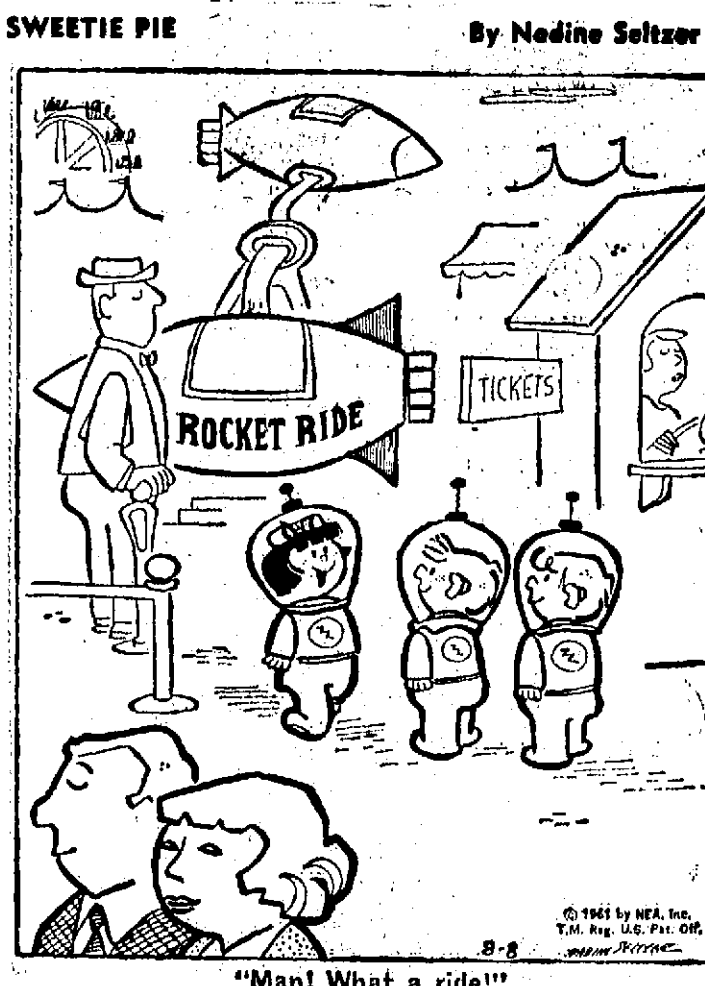

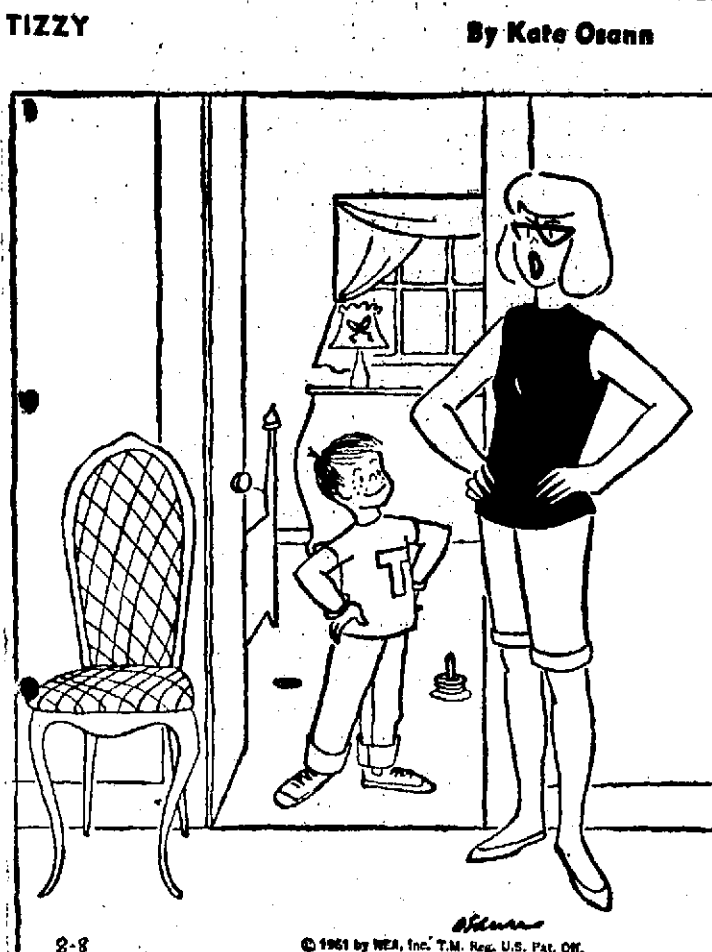

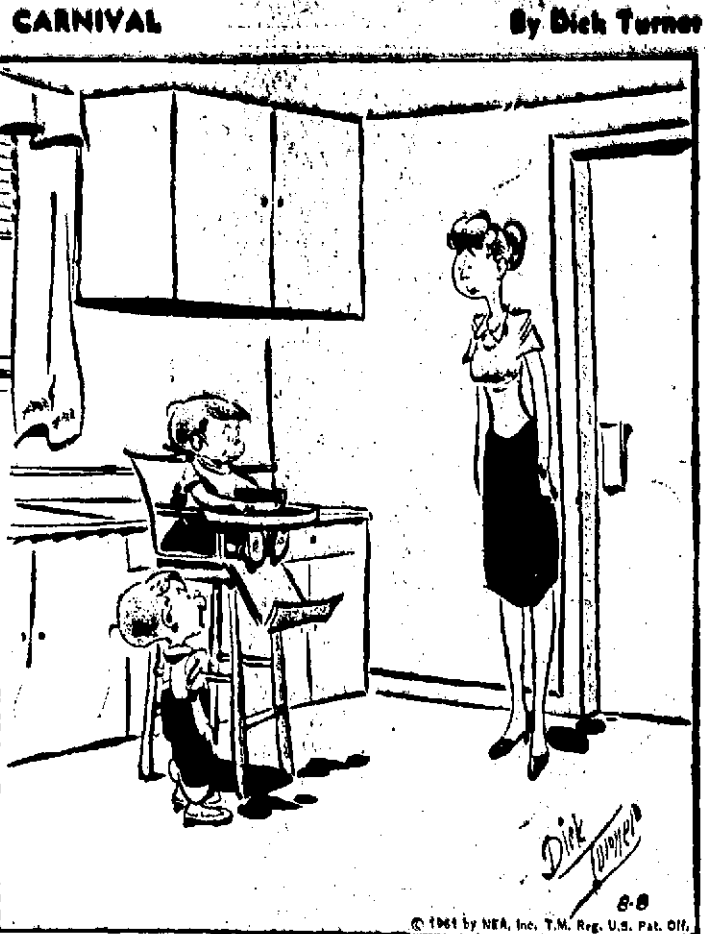

ACROSS

- 1 U.S. official
- 2 Strange
- 3 McNamara
- 4 He is a lover of
- 5 Form a nation
- 6 Make certain
- 7 Nun
- 8 He is a prominent
- 9 Abstract Being
- 10 Mariner's direction
- 11 Greek letter
- 12 Picked out
- 13 Architectural piers
- 14 Vegetables
- 15 Murrain (var.)
- 16 Juliet's lover
- 17 Convex molding
- 18 Nautical term
- 19 Juvenal's forte
- 20 Canvas shelters
- 21 Capital of Venezuela
- 22 Be indebted
- 23 Narrow inlet
- 24 Fish
- 25 Clog
- 26 Korea
- 27 Aschdred
- 28 Greeted
- 29 Hate
- 30 Lamprey
- 31 Fishermen

DOWN

- 1 Get up
- 2 Norse god
- 3 Mrs. Truman
- 4 Dine
- 5 Route (ab.)
- 6 Pithy
- 7 Goddess of the moon
- 8 Promissory note expiration (ab.)

NEWSERVICE ASSN.

Hope Star SPORTS

Musial, Berra Current Home Run Sluggers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris? Forget the kids. The home run sluggers of the moment are Stan Musial and Yogi Berra, a couple of old guys who may be on the way out, but who refuse to go quietly.

It was Berra, now 35 and put out to pasture, you might say, in left field, who broke up a tie with a home run as the New York Yankees beat the Los Angeles Angels 4-1 Monday night. That gave the Yanks a five-game streak and a three-game lead, their biggest bulge yet, over idle Detroit in the American League race.

And it was Musial, still The Man at 40, who socked a three-run homer that boosted St. Louis to a 5-1 victory over Cincinnati and dropped the second-place Reds .006 percentage points behind the idle Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League scrap.

Berra's shot was his 14th of the season. Musial's was not 11. Between them they have little more than half the total of either Mantle (43) or Maris (41) as the two Yankee outfielders shot for Babe Ruth's long elusive record of 60.

Musial's, however, was the 44th of his 20-year career — a total topped only by Ruth, Jimmy Fox, Ted Williams, Mel Ott and Lou Gehrig, and second to Ott's 511 in National League history.

Yogi's was the 332nd of a 16-year career with the Yanks, most of it spent behind the plate. It broke a tie with Hall of Famer Hank Greenberg for 14th place on the all-time list. Only Ruth, Fox, Williams, Gehrig, Mantle and Joe DiMaggio have hit more in the AL.

In other games on Monday's slack schedule, Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 3-1 in the NL while Baltimore defeated Kansas City 4-1.

Korean, U. S. Officials Meet

SEOUL (AP) — The chief of South Korea's ruling military junta and the top U.S. representatives in the country met informally over the weekend in a secluded beach resort, it was learned today.

Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-hi, the junta chairman, entertained Ambassador Samuel D. Berger, Gen. Guy S. Meoy, the U.N. and U.S. 8th Army commander, and Dr. Raymond T. Moyer, outgoing director of the U.S. aid program.

5-4 and Boston took a two-night pair from Minnesota, both by 5-4, in the only other AL games.

Mantle and Maris were held to one hit each, and got just one ball past the pitcher's mound between them against losing right-hander Ken McBride (9-8). But even with singles they were the big guys for the Yanks—next to Berra. Maris caught the Angels by surprise with a neat, two-out bunt that scored a run and made it 1-0 in the third inning. Maris and Mick then paired for the insurance runs in the eighth — when Maris walked and scored as Mantle's single got past center fielder Ken Hunt for an error. Mick came in on a wild pitch.

Bud Daley (9-15) became the first southpaw to go the distance against the Angels since May 21 and broke a personal losing skid at five games by holding Los Angeles to six hits, all singles.

Musial's sixth-inning shot, followed a hit batter and a sacrifice bunt by Bill White that went for a hit when the Reds failed to cover first base, giving the Cards a 4-1 bulge. They breezed all the way, starting with a second-inning homer by Carl Sawatski off Ken Johnson (2-1) while right-hander Larry Jackson (8-8) won his fifth in a row. The Reds had seven hits, but were shut out until they got an unearned run in the eighth.

Right-hander Bob Friend (11-13) making his first start since suffering an ankle injury last Wednesday, beat Philadelphia with a four-hitter. It was the 10th straight loss and 15th defeat in 16 games for the Phils, who scored in the sixth on Ruben Amaro's triple and a sacrifice fly by Johnny Callison. Singles by Bill Mazeroski and Bill Virdon scored the "Bucs" clincher in the second off John Buzhardt (3-12).

Jackie Brandt drove in Baltimore's last three runs, putting it away with a two-run homer in the seventh inning. Jim Gentile also hit a home run for the Orioles, setting a club record with his 31st. Chuck Estrada (9-6) was the winner, with relief help, and Art Ditmer (2-7) the loser.

The Red Sox won the opener on Carl Yastrzemski's two-out single in the ninth, and pinch-hitter Vic Wertz bagged the nightcap with a two-out single in the eighth. Don Schwall (13-2) won the second game — for his seventh straight success, two shy of the rookie record in the AL. Mike Fournieles won the opener with five innings of two-hit relief. Don Lee (3-3) and Pete Ramos (8-13) were the losers. The Twins have lost eight in a row, the last five by one run.

Groat Just Trying to Get Along

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dick Groat, the National League batting champion and most valuable player of 1960, is just another shortstop "scratching and trying to get along," this season.

For the first time since the peppery captain of the Pittsburgh Pirates came out of Duke University and joined the Bucs in 1952 the game has become a struggle instead of a joy.

"Everybody wants to know what's the matter," Groat said today. "I can't begin to tell them. I don't know. If I did I would do something about it."

The infielder who won the batting title with a .325 average last year, has been poking along about .75 points under that mark this season and it's reached the state where he admittedly "becomes overwhelmed when I get two hits in a game."

"I thought I was out of that .250 class," said Groat, an over .300 batter in three of his previous seven campaigns. "But I suppose I was only kidding myself."

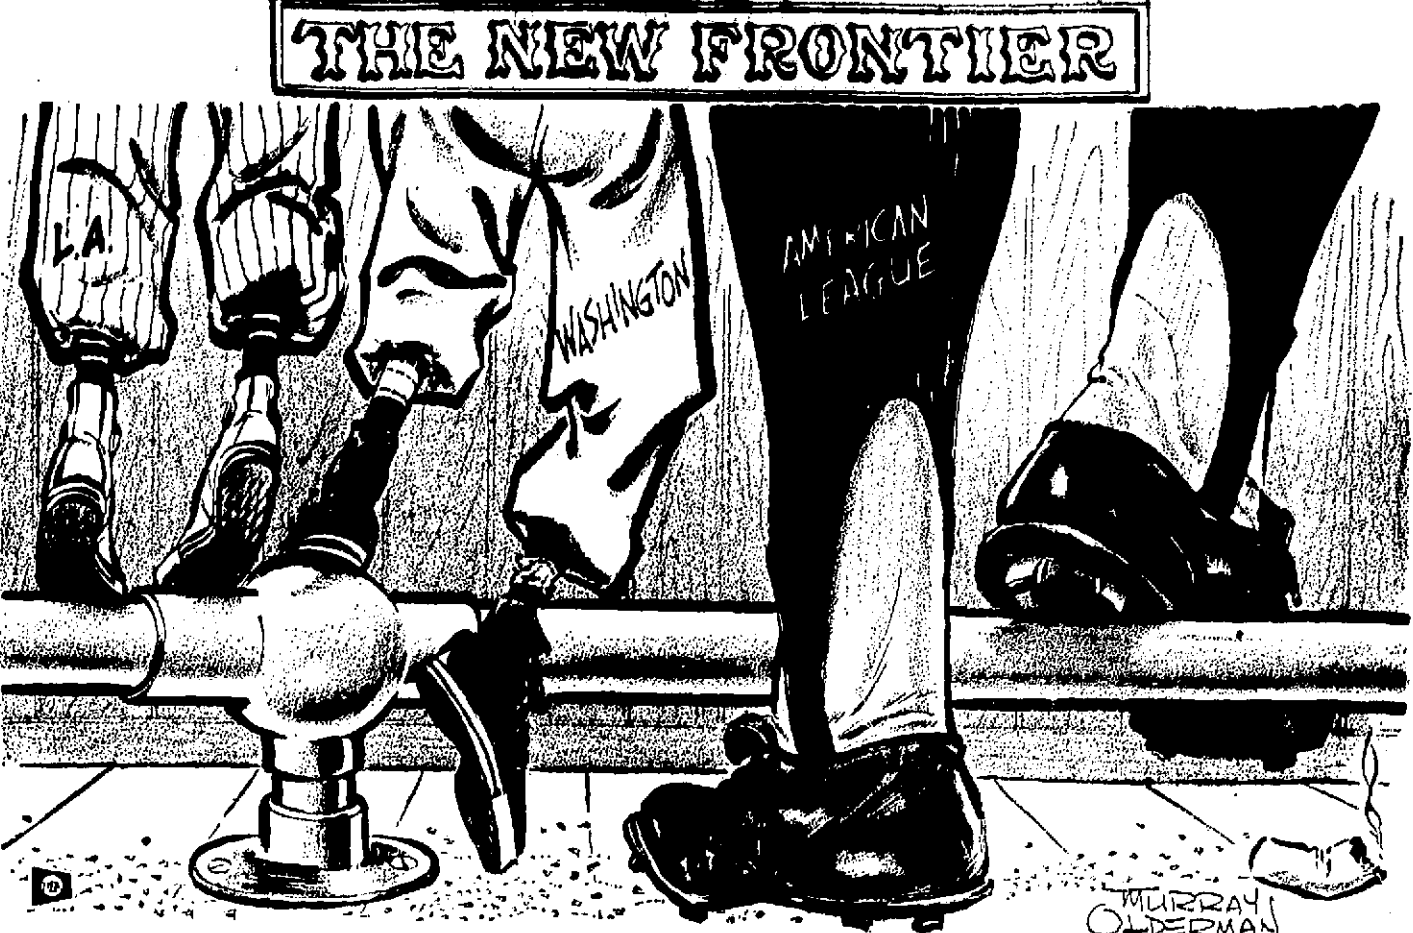

Groat went 0-4 Monday night, dropping his average to .256 as the Pirates defeated Philadelphia 3-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Bob Friend.

Groat isn't about to write off 1961 as a sorry season, however. "There is still one-third of a season to go," he said.

"Who knows? Maybe some day I'll surprise myself and get three hits in a game."

Travelers Drop Game to Mobile

By ROSS M. HAGEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Standings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
American League

	W	L	Pct	GB
New York	72	37	.660	—
Detroit	69	40	.633	3
Baltimore	62	49	.559	11
Cleveland	57	54	.514	16
Chicago	56	54	.509	16½
Boston	54	60	.474	20½
Los Angeles	47	62	.431	25
Washington	46	61	.430	25
Minnesota	46	64	.418	26½
Kansas City	40	68	.370	31½

Monday Results

Boston 5-5, Minnesota 4-4 (twi-night)
New York 4, Los Angeles 1 (N)
Baltimore 5, Kansas City 4 (N)
Only games scheduled

Tuesday Games

Minnesota at Boston (N)
Washington at Cleveland (N)
Detroit at Chicago (N)
Los Angeles at New York (N)
Kansas City at Baltimore (Twnight)

Wednesday Games

Los Angeles at New York
Minnesota at Boston (N)
Kansas City at Baltimore (N)
Washington at Cleveland (N)
Detroit at Chicago (N)

National League

	W	L	Pct	GB
Los Angeles	65	40	.619	—
Cincinnati	68	43	.613	—
San Francisco	56	49	.533	9
Milwaukee	54	49	.524	10
St. Louis	53	53	.500	12½
Pittsburgh	49	51	.490	13½
Chicago	44	60	.423	20½
Philadelphia	30	74	.283	34½

Monday Results

Pittsburgh 3, Philadelphia 1 (N)
St. Louis 5, Cincinnati 1 (N)
Only games scheduled

Tuesday Games

Milwaukee at Los Angeles (N)
Chicago at San Francisco (N)
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia (Twnight)

Wednesday Games

Chicago at San Francisco
Cincinnati at Philadelphia (N)
St. Louis at Pittsburgh (N)
Milwaukee at Los Angeles (N)

Major League Leaders

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
National League
Batting (based on 250 or more at bats) — Clemente, Pittsburgh, 369; Moon, Los Angeles, 338.
Runs — Robinson, Cincinnati and Mays, San Francisco, 93.
Runs batted in — Robinson, Cincinnati, 98; Cepeda, San Francisco, 96.
Hits — Clemente, Pittsburgh,
147; Pinson, Cincinnati, 146.
Doubles — Cleman, Cincinnati,
27; Aaron, Milwaukee, 26.
Triples — Altman, Chicago and Clemente, Pittsburgh, 9.
Home runs — Robinson, Cincinnati, 33; Cepeda, San Francisco, 30.
Strikeouts — Koufax, Los Angeles, 181; Williams, Los Angeles, 135.

1960 Stars to Bow Out on Saturday

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Arkansas high school football stars of 1960 make their final bow Saturday in the annual
All-Star game in Little Rock.

Exactly one week later, the stars-to-be of 1961 will be issued equipment and will get down to fall practice for what promises to be one of the most eventful of Arkansas prep grid seasons.

The kickoff date for practice is
Aug. 19, and some teams will be beginning as early as Sept. 1.
Most won't be in action until the 8th.

This is the year Arkansas may resume state playoffs in Classes
AA, A and B.

This is the year someone may knock Little Rock Central out of the AAA throne room.

This is the year for a big upswing in interest in high school football, says Johnie Burnett, signal-caller for the state's high school program.

"Interest hit a real low level
three years ago," said Burnett, executive secretary of the Arkansas Athletic Association. "The emphasis went to the university and pro level. Instead of staying home on Friday night to watch the high school team play, the football fan took off early for a university or college game."

"They (the colleges and universities) have divorced us," he added. "But they're beginning to realize they can't have fine programs without good high school programs."

Oriole Hurler Oves Wins to Gentile

By GORDON BEARD
BALTIMORE Md. (AP)—Don't be surprised if pitcher Chuck Estrada of the Baltimore Orioles organizes his own fan club for teammate Jim Gentile.

An 18-game winner in his 1960 rookie season, Estrada has won only 9 this year. The 23-year-old right-hander would be in far worse shape without Gentile's batting support.

The slugging first baseman has walloped 11 of his 31 homers this season while Estrada was the Baltimore pitcher, including all four of his grand-slam homers.

The two teamed up again Monday night, Gentile hitting a solo homer his first time at bat and Estrada gaining credit for a 5-4 victory over the Kansas City Athletics. Estrada left the game in the seventh with a 3-0 lead, and eventually was charged with one run.

"He—Estrada—should be on his knees after every game, polishing Gentile's shoes," Oriole pitching coach Harry Brecheen said after the game.

"You ought to make him buy you something," catcher Gus Tri-andos urged Gentile. "How about a new suit?"

Gentile didn't take up the suggestion, but he thought it would be another indication of general over-changes in the past year. This is all improvement.

Field and Stream

It was the spin casting reel, strictly an American modification, that made casters out of millions.

The closed face spin casting reel, which mounts on the tops ide of a bait casting rod, operates on the same fixed spool principle but in addition to eliminating back lashes it is simpler to operate.

This reel, which now is used by an ever-increasing number of the nation's 40 million fishermen, is so easy to use that a novice, even without an instructor, can learn to throw it in 10 minutes.

On the back of the reel is a button. When the rod is lifted for the back cast, the thumb depresses and holds the button down.
When the forward cast is made,
the button is released and the line comes off.

To retrieve, simply turn the crank. A tiny arm inside picks up the line. All spin cast reels have a mechanical drag, usually known as a dial, which can be set to play the fish properly.

Casting with some accuracy is equally as simple. Turn the rod until the reel is on the side nearest you. Depress and hold the release button.

Raise the rod to one o'clock (the tip will be slightly in back of the head). Keep the elbow against the side and then with the wrist alone give the rod a sharp flip.

At about 11 o'clock (slightly in front of the head) release the button.

The reel does the rest.
a good idea if Estrada pitched more often.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Minor Major	Minor Major	Minor Major
A. M.	P. M.	P. M.
Tues. 2:50	9:10	3:25
Wed. 3:40	10:00	4:15
Thurs. 4:30	10:45	5:00
Fri. 5:20	11:30	5:45
Sat. 6:05	—	6:30
Sun. 6:50	12:40	7:15

Shop MOORE BROS.

Tuesday and Wednesday

BORDEN'S 1/2 GAL. LOW CALORIE CREAM FREE Ice Cream Scoop 39¢

HOME GROWN WHITE and COLORED Butter Beans 10¢

HOME GROWN PURPLE HULL PEAS 3:25¢

Home Grown TOMATOES 4:25¢

CANNED BISCUITS 3:19¢

Arab Troops to Replace British

DAMASCUS (AP) — An Arab League force of 2,500 to 5,000 men will be ready to replace British troops in Kuwait late this month or early next month, reliable sources reported today.

The informants said the size of the force depends on talks in Kuwait today between an Arab League military mission and the ruler of the oil-rich sheikdom, Sheikh Abdullah as-Salim as-Sabah.

The mission stopped off in Saudi Arabia Sunday night to discuss the position of Saudi Arabian forces sent to the sheikdom after Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem threatened to annex it.

Fight Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Francisco — Henry Jackson, 178, San Francisco, outpointed Eddie Shaw, 190, San Francisco (6); Johnny Canty, 173, San Francisco, stopped Lee Turner, 161½, Los Angeles (5).
Miami — Vince Bonomo, 149, New Orleans, knocked out Josh Thomas, 150, Orlando, Fla. (3).

Mercury and Comet streak for new peak

COMET 2-DOOR SEDAN

DISTRICT SALES UP 34%

METEOR 600 2-DOOR SEDAN

Come get our big-volume, top-value deal right here — right now!

MERCURY COMET

sales are soaring! Ask to see the figures on the great '61 Mercury. It has 7 money-saving, self-servicing features. Traditional luxury ride. And it's now in the popular-price range. Come get your top-value deal today.

is still shooting the stars in sales. Here's why: Comet is the proved compact—first with fine-car styling . . . big-car ride . . . room for six . . . huge 28 cu. ft. trunk. Buy now—take advantage of our volume deals.

THE TRADING POST

305-315-325 E. Third St.
Hope, Ark.